Your Majesty,

May I tell you once again how pleased I was to meet with you in Paris last month during the United Nations Conference on Least Developed Countries. I warmly appreciated the cordial discussions we had on that occasion and am most grateful for the support you affirmed for my efforts to contribute to the search for solutions to the many grave problems which confront the international community today.

In this connexion, I should also like to thank you most sincerely for your Government's message of support which was recently conveyed to me by your Permanent Representative to the United Nations. Your Majesty's kind expression of appreciation and confidence in my endeavours indeed greatly encourages me in my continued work for peace and international understanding.

With my warmest good wishes for your personal well-being and for the prosperity of the people of Nepal, please accept, Your Majesty, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Excellency,

I have the honour and great pleasure to inform you that His Majesty's Government of Nepal has decided to support Your Excellency's candidature for reappointment as the Secretary General of the United Nations. In doing so, His Majesty's Government reiterates its great appreciation for the unfailing efforts Your Excellency have been making during these last ten years to sincerely discharge your heavy responsibilities as well as for your efforts to increase the effectiveness of the United Nations.

I wish Your Excellency all success.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Dear Mr. Rohan,

I thought Dr. Waldheim would be interested to know that in his speech from the throne at the opening of the session of the newly elected Rastriya Panchayat (Parliament) H.M. the King made specific mention of the Secretary-General's recent visit. His Majesty said "The visit of His Excellency Dr. Kurt Waldheim to Nepal last year* has afforded us an opportunity to reiterate our unstinted faith in the United Nations. In consonance with Nepal's policy to contribute to help maintain international peace, a contingent of the Royal Nepalese Army has again proceeded to Lebanon at the request of the United Nations to assist, as usual, in the maintenance of peace."

In another part of the speech the King said "We express our gratitude to all the international organizations and friendly countries for their cooperation to the socio-economic development efforts of Nepal."

With best regards,

Yours sincerely,

Your Majesty,

I wish to thank you for your very kind letter inviting Mrs. Waldheim and myself to participate in Your Majesty's Coronation Ceremony on 24 February 1975. I deeply appreciate this invitation and it would be a great honour and pleasure indeed for Mrs. Waldheim and myself to attend this auspicious occasion.

As Your Majesty is certainly aware, the United Nations, and myself, are deeply involved in seeking to find solutions for critical international situations, particularly in Cyprus and the Middle-East, and developments in these matters have unfortunately not yet made it possible for me to finalize my schedule for February. I would therefore suggest that I remain in contact with your Permanent Representative to the United Nations regarding Your Majesty's gracious invitation.

Excellency,

I have the honour to inform Your Excellency that His Majesty's Government of Nepal has decided to submit the candidature of Dr. Bhekh Bahadur Thapa, former Finance Secretary to His Majesty's Government, for the post of the Executive Secretary of ECAFE, on expiry of the term of office of the present Executive Secretary U Nyun.

Dr. Thapa who has led the Nepalese Delegation to ECAFE Conference on several occasions in the past, has been closely associated with the work of the Commission and personally knows many of the prominent personalities of the ECAFE region. With his profound knowledge of the development problems of this region, his outstanding abilities and long experience in the area of economic development and administration, I am confident that he will be able to render a significant contribution to the work of the Secretariat of ECAFE and will continue to make it an effective instrument for regional co-operation in the future.

In view of his personal qualifications and also in view of the fact that no high position either in the Secretariat of the UN as well as in any of the regional and subsidiary bodies has so far been held by Nepalese nationals, I would appreciate it very much if Your Excellency would give your most favourable consideration for the nomination of Dr. Bhekh Bahadur Thapa in
